

The OEA information comprises 2 parts:

(JUPAS Official Link:

<https://www.jupas.edu.hk/en/application-procedures-information/application-information/other-experiences-and-achievements-in-competitions-activities-oea/>)

OEA Information

The OEA information comprises 2 parts:

Awards / Activities

The maximum number of OEA items allowed is 10.

For each OEA award / activity, applicants are required to provide the following information:

1. Award / Activity Name

2. Category

3. Year of Participation

4. Participation Mode

5. Activity Nature

6. Role

7. Award-bearing / Non-award-bearing Activity

8. Award Type

9. Description of the Award / Activity

Additional Information

The "Additional Information" is optional.

"Additional Information" aims at allowing the applicants to describe interests or activities that have been particularly meaningful to them or have affected their personal growth and life goals. It does NOT however aim at testing their language skills.

Applicants can submit the "Additional Information" in either English or Chinese. The word limit is 500 words.

■ Uploading of Supporting Documents

The JUPAS online application system will randomly select and request for the respective supporting documents for awards and activities in applicants' OEA information to be uploaded. Selected OEA awards / activities, of which the supporting documents are required, will be highlighted in pink once they are submitted.

Applicants whose OEA items are not highlighted in pink NEED NOT upload any supporting documents.